

ACCA's Board of Directors is pleased to announce Heidi Haas as the new Executive Director, effective November 1st, 2021. Heidi has served as Deputy Director of ACCA for the last eight years and served as Interim Executive Director since August. She brings with her an extensive background in disability advocacy, non-profit management, public relations, and leadership.

Heidi's diverse skill set will support ACCA's mission and strategic goals while supporting staff and the clients and families that ACCA serves. Heidi has a wealth of knowledge in the disability and non-profit fields, including a robust understanding of federal and state regulations concerning grant writing and management, programs for individuals with disabilities, and non-profit management. She has successfully led the ACCA team through the process of obtaining national accreditation by creating systems, processes, and implementing the changes necessary to meet all of the standards. Heidi is committed to the betterment of the community, through her service on many boards and committees.

Heidi was born and raised in Fairbanks, Alaska, and spent several years outside of Alaska before returning with her husband to raise their family. Heidi enjoys traveling, spending time at the lake, and watching her children engage in activities they enjoy. Heidi earned her Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources and is pursuing a Master's Degree in Management and Leadership.

The Board of Directors has the utmost confidence in Heidi's ability to support ACCA's staff, clients, mission, and strategic goals. Heidi is a passionate, experienced, and committed leader and we look forward to seeing her continue to lead ACCA and grow to meet the needs of communities we serve.

ACCA's Board of Directors is pleased to announce Heidi Haas as the new Executive Director, effective November 1st, 2021. Heidi has served as Deputy Director of ACCA for the last eight years and served as Interim Executive Director since August. She brings with her an extensive background in disability advocacy, non-profit management, public relations, and leadership.

Heidi's diverse skill set will support ACCA's mission and strategic goals while supporting staff and the clients and families that ACCA serves. Heidi has a wealth of knowledge in the disability and non-profit fields, including a robust understanding of federal and state regulations concerning grant writing and management, programs for individuals with disabilities, and non-profit management. She has successfully led the ACCA team through the process of obtaining national accreditation by creating systems, processes, and implementing the changes necessary to meet all of the standards. Heidi is committed to the betterment of the community, through her service on many boards and committees.

Heidi was born and raised in Fairbanks, Alaska, and spent several years outside of Alaska before returning with her husband to raise their family. Heidi enjoys traveling, spending time at the lake, and watching her children engage in activities they enjoy. Heidi earned her Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources and is pursuing a Master's Degree in Management and Leadership.

The Board of Directors has the utmost confidence in Heidi's ability to support ACCA's staff, clients, mission, and strategic goals of ACCA. Heidi is a passionate, experienced, and committed leader and we look forward to seeing Heidi continue to lead ACCA and grow to meet the needs of communities we service.

ACCA's Board of Directors is pleased to announce Heidi Haas as its new Executive Director, effective November 1st, 2021. Heidi has served as Deputy Director of ACCA for over eight years, and has been serving as Interim Executive Director since August. She brings with her an extensive background in disability advocacy, non-profit management, public relations, and leadership.

Heidi's diverse skill set will support ACCA's mission and strategic goals, while supporting staff and the clients and families that ACCA serves. Heidi has a wealth of knowledge in the disability and non-profit fields, including a robust understanding of federal and state regulations concerning grant writing and management, programs for individuals with disabilities, and non-profit management. She has successfully led the ACCA team through the process of obtaining national accreditation by creating systems, processes, and implementing the changes necessary to meet all of the standards. Heidi is committed to the betterment of the community, through her service on many boards and committees.

Heidi was born and raised in Fairbanks, Alaska, and spent several years outside of Alaska before returning with her husband to raise their family. Heidi enjoys traveling, spending time at the lake, and watching her children engage in activities they enjoy. Heidi earned her Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources and is pursuing a Master's Degree in Management and Leadership.

The Board of Directors has the utmost confidence in Heidi's ability to support ACCA's staff, clients, mission, and strategic goals of ACCA. Heidi is a passionate, experienced, and committed leader and we look forward to seeing how Heidi can continue to help ACCA grow to meet the needs of our community.