

ACCA Service Update 3-29-2021

Response to Coronavirus (COVID-19)

ACCA is continuing to carefully implement the recommendations of the Governor's Office, CDC and DHSS related to the pandemic.

ACCA facilities in Fairbanks are now open to the public for limited services and hours. ACCA services continue to be primarily provided via telephone, Zoom and email. Specific program information can be found below.

ACCA Medical Equipment Loan Closet

Loan Closet services are suspended until further notice.

FASD Diagnostic Team

The FASD Diagnostic Team continues to accept referrals for diagnostic services. Many of our community based providers are completing evaluations and children are completing the evaluation process. The FASD Coordinator can assist families with the Diagnostic Team process. In addition, families can access supports through a monthly FASD Families Zoom and through the FASD Across the Lifespan online training. Information about these can be found on the ACCA website under the FASD Support and Discussion Group link. You can reach Jenn Wagaman by phone or text message at (907)371-8247.

DDRC Connections Program

DDRC Services continues to accept referrals and provide services. The DDRC Coordinator can work with you to determine the best method for submitting required paperwork. You can reach Fontana Dawson by phone or text at (907)328-8815.

Infant/Early Childhood Mental Health Program

The IECMH Program continues to accept referrals and continues to provide services through phone and Zoom at this time. Staff are available to support families of children ages birth to 8 years who have concerns about their children's mental health or social emotional development. You can reach KimAdelia Leff at (907)799-7286

Infant Learning Program

The ILP Program continues to accept referrals and provide services via phone and Zoom. Some families with specific service needs may be eligible for limited face to face services in the ACCA Community Center. To get more information about this please speak with your Family Service Coordinator.

To make a referral you can reach Sarah Kleinschmidt at (907)371-6403. Enrolled families can call their providers directly, phone information can be found at: <http://alaskacenter.org/staff-group/all-staff/>
